

Research Study

Environmental Advocacy and Community Well-Being

Rush University
Department of Occupational Therapy

A collaboration with the
Garfield Park
Conservatory

What	Study investigating the impact of participating in environmental justice advocacy on community members' overall well-being and quality of life
Who	Members of organizations focused on environmental justice and/or social justice within the Garfield Park community
Length	February through April 2023
Requirements	One in-person focus group session (46-60 minutes)
Compensation	Food and drink to be provided during focus groups, entry in raffle to receive $15 gift cards
Sign up	For more information, please contact Emma Sims at emma_sims@rush.edu

